

THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC ANNOUNCES EXPIRATION OF OFFER TO PURCHASE AND APPLICABLE EXCHANGE RATE

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, January 31, 2023

The Dominican Republic (the “Republic”) announced today (i) the aggregate principal amount of bonds that have been validly tendered pursuant to its previously announced offer to purchase for cash the bonds (the “Existing Bonds”) listed in the table below (the “Offer”), pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions described in the offer document dated January 24, 2023 (the “Offer Document”), and (ii) that the exchange rate at which the Purchase Price and Accrued Interest payable in connection with the Offer will be converted to U.S. dollars is DOP56.6207 per US$1.00 (the “Applicable Exchange Rate”). The Offer expired as scheduled at 8:00 a.m. (New York City time) on January 31, 2023. The aggregate principal amount of Existing Bonds validly tendered was DOP37,221,000,000. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Offer Document.

The following table indicates the aggregate principal amount of Existing Bonds that had been validly tendered pursuant to the Offer as of 8:00 a.m. (New York City time) on January 31, 2023.

8.900% Bonds due 2023	USP3579EBZ99 / P3579EBZ9 (Reg S) US25714PDX33 / 25714P DX3 (144A)	DOP37,221,000,000	93.05%	DOP1,000

- (1) Information regarding the aggregate principal amount of Existing Bonds tendered is based on information received from the Tender and Information Agent (as defined below).
- (2) Principal amount of Existing Bonds tendered pursuant to the Offer expressed as an approximate percentage of the aggregate principal amount of Existing Bonds outstanding.
- (3) Per DOP1,000 principal amount of the Existing Bonds validly tendered and accepted for purchase. Holders whose Existing Bonds were validly tendered and are accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will also receive Accrued Interest. Holders whose Existing Bonds were validly tendered and are accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be paid in U.S. dollars as described herein and in the Offer Document.

The Offer is conditioned, among other things, on the concurrent (or earlier) closing of an issuance by the Republic of one or more series of DOP-denominated, New York law-governed debt securities, in an aggregate principal amount, with pricing and on terms and conditions acceptable to the Republic in its sole discretion (the “New Notes Offering”). The Republic intends to use a portion of the net proceeds from the New Notes Offering to purchase the Existing Bonds accepted for purchase. The New Notes Offering has been made solely by means of an offering memorandum relating to the New Notes Offering, and neither this announcement nor the Offer Document constitutes an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any such new debt securities.

The Republic reserves the right, in its sole discretion, not to accept any valid orders to tender Existing Bonds in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Offer or to terminate the Offer for any reason. In the event of a termination of the Offer, tendered Existing Bonds will be returned to the tendering Holder.

The total purchase price for the principal amount of the Existing Bonds validly tendered by a Holder and accepted by the Republic will be an amount in cash equal to the outstanding principal amount of such Existing Bonds, multiplied by the Purchase Price, plus Accrued Interest (the “Total Purchase Price”). If the Total Purchase Price minus Accrued Interest for all validly tendered Existing Bonds (the “Tendered Aggregate Purchase Price”) would exceed the Maximum Purchase Price, then the Republic will, in its sole discretion, apply a proration factor to the Tenders.

If the Republic accepts all or a portion of a Holder’s tender of Existing Bonds, the Holder will be entitled to receive for such Existing Bonds the Purchase Price plus Accrued Interest converted into U.S. dollars at the Applicable Exchange Rate, payable on the Settlement Date (as defined below) in U.S. dollars if the conditions of the Offer are met. The Applicable Exchange Rate corresponds to the average of the buy and sell spot foreign exchange rates published by the Central Bank of the Dominican Republic, which represent the weighted averages of transactions completed prior to 5:30 p.m. on January 27, 2023 by commercial banks and financial institutions in the Dominican Republic, as calculated by the Central Bank, and which are available at the Central Bank’s website at https://cdn.bancentral.gov.do/documents/estadisticas/mercado-cambiario/documents/TASA\_DOLAR\_REFERENCIA\_MC.xlsx?v=1674595023895.

The settlement of validly tendered and accepted Existing Bonds is expected to occur on Friday, February 3, 2023, subject to change without notice (the “Settlement Date”).

On January 31, 2023, at or around 5:00 p.m. (New York City time), subject to change without notice, the Republic expects to announce: (i) the Maximum Purchase Price; (ii) the Tendered Aggregate Purchase Price; (iii) the aggregate principal amount of Tenders of the Existing Bonds that has been accepted; and (iv) any proration of Tenders of the Existing Bonds.
